LUMBERJACKS IN FLANNEL, CHOPPING WOOD HEADLINE SEAWORLD SAN ANTONIO'S ADRENALINE-FUELED LINE UP FOR SPRING BREAK

New Lumberjack Competition, Block Parties, Nightly Fireworks, Extended Hours and Aquatica Waterpark Make for a Can't-Miss Spring Break

SAN ANTONIO (February 19, 2016) – Let the log-rolling, tree-climbing, wood-chopping and axe-throwing begin as SeaWorld San Antonio debuts “Lumberjack Challenge: Texas vs. Alaska,” part of an all-new line-up of Spring Break-only experiences at the theme park.

Debuting March 5, the new show pits two teams of flannel-clad lumberjacks — one from Texas, the other Alaska — against one another in feats of skill, strength and yes, charisma. Guests tend to choose sides (sorry Alaska) and it's a rip-roaring good time had by all.

The marine park has much more high-energy Spring Break fun on tap with:

- Sesame Street Bay of Play Block Party — a festive get-together where guests dance and sing along with Elmo, Big Bird and their fluffy friends at Sesame Street Bay of Play, a three-acre, specially-designed area with rides and shows for the little ones.
- Aquatica Opening — the first chance all year to make waves, soak up the sun, splash and slide in a tropical getaway at Aquatica, SeaWorld's waterpark. The park will be open daily March 12 - 20, as well as weekends throughout the spring.
- Evening Fireworks — millions of brilliant lights and exploding colors set to a sweeping musical score are the perfect way to cap the day March 14 - 19.

Every day March 12 - 20, SeaWorld will extend operating hours from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., allowing families to get the full spring break experience.

The best family ticket value is the $65 SeaWorld Fun Card, which now includes a meal voucher for SeaWorld restaurants as well as unlimited admission to the theme park through December 31. The SeaWorld & Aquatica Fun Card with a meal voucher is $105. Fun Cards can be purchased online at SeaWorldSanAntonio.com or by calling (800) 700-7786.
